Gleanings.

The Brethren church of Bryan, Williams co., Ohio, will be dedicaed on May 20th, at 10: a. m.

It would be a God-send to the church if the suggestions of Sister Teeter in this number were universally heeded.

This issue contains one of Sister Grossnickle's best sermons—one that has thrilled every audience that has ever heard her deliver it.

Bro. Calvert has been engaged to hold a two week's meeting in the Fair Haven church prior to their Love Feast in June. So Brother J. T. Kolb informs us.

We are very sorry that two communications from Brother D. C. Moomaw dated 27th and 28th ult. relative to their D. M. at Roanake reached us too late for last issue, and now its publication would be too late to do any good.

Dr. Garst has prepared an announcement of Ashland University for next year which is now in the hands of the printer. The school will be opened Sept. 11th with Collegiate, Theological, Scientific, Art and Commercial departments.

The Index, Waterloo, Iowa, is the title of a very neat weekly published by Messrs Corwin & Mowery both of whom have worked on the EVANGELIST in days gone by. It is evidently an organ of the Populists. Well, "boys," we wish you success.

Taken altogether we think our paper this week is an extra good one. Bro. Bashor's "prelude" will be read with especial interest, as it treats a question of vital importance to every home. You may not agree with his conclusions, but you will admit he states his position with great force and clearness.

The portrait of Homer which we print in the King's Children of this week is very good. It represents the dear, earnest thoughtful child just as he stood when he confessed Jesus as his Savior and asked to be buried with him in baptism.

We shall print as many extra numbers of this issue as we think may be called for. Price, 5 cts. each.

The editor expects on the 20th instant, the Lord willing, to assist the Brethren at Bryan, Ohio, in dedicating the new church they have, under the blessing of God, just been able to complete. On that occasion we hope to meet many of our readers who live in north eastern Ohio, and southern Michigan whose faces we have never before seen.

ROSENA, CAL., April 25, '94.

S. J. HARRISON. Dear Brother in Christ: I saw in number 16 a letter on the first page in regard to a sister who is in limited circumstances, and not able to take the paper. I will pay for it. I can deeply sympathize with her in the loss of a dear husband. Only those who have drank of the same deep cup of sorrow can realize her feelings.

MRS. D. W. ALBAUGH.

PUBLISHING HOUSE FINANCES.

In answer to the following inquiry the treasurer of the purchasing committee of the Publishing House makes the following report:

THE INQUIRY.

DETROIT, KAN., April 2, 1894.

DEAR BROTHER: Will you please to inform me for the Brethren church as to what amount if any of the publishing debt still remains to be paid as Harmony Brethren church at this place wish to donate with the rest to help pay that debt and redeem the honor of our church.

Yours Fraternally,
F. E. SMITH.

From the foregoing it will be seen that:

1. The total cost of Pub. House is $4000.
2. That 48 shares of stock, $480 have not yet been donated to the church and that the debt of $600. upon the plant when it was taken by the church still remains unprovided for. This leaves a total indebtedness on the original purchase of $1080. and if the church makes good the notes taken by Bro. Holsinger of $286. yet unpaid then there remains a total indebtedness on the original purchase of $1356.

Against this may be set the subscriptions taken in the Ashland City, Ankneytown, North Liberty, Louisville, Buckeye City and Homerville churches, aggregating about $240.

C. ROWLAND, Treas.,
Lanark, Ill.

In regard to an organization in the church that shall aid churches in securing pastors, and pastors in securing charges we would remind Bro. Kiehl that we already have just such an organization, but on account of having too much to do the president has not been able to do his duty in keeping the matter before those interested. We will now take the opportunity to ask every minister desiring a charge and every congregation desiring a minister to write us full particulars.
